

Dag Arnesen Trio Inner Lines

Terje Gewelt – Svein Christiansen

Later this year we look forward to a new recording with Dag Arnesen's Norwegian Song Trio featuring Ellen Andrea Wang and Pål Thowsen. The CD will include several of Dag's previously unrecorded originals and new versions of some of his favourite tracks from older recordings. Most of this music will be more jazz-oriented than heard on the original, highly successful 'Norwegian Song' series.

Whilst working on this new project, I thought about the possibility of re-releasing an album that hasn't been available for a long time, 'Inner Lines'. When Dag sent me a copy of the album, the music sounded just as fresh as it did 10-12 years ago and it became immediately clear to me that I must re-release it on Losen Records. I even had a front cover picture by Finn Aasum in mind. Dag agreed immediately and the process began. Apart from a few concerts, the trio only existed for this recording.

'Inner Lines' was first released in 1998, but when the first pressing sold out it was never repressed. Now it is reborn, this time on Losen Records, with totally new packaging and layout.

Unfortunately the ISRC code as written on the CD cover is wrong. You will find the right one below.
