Powered By Life

This album was born as a result of a tragic death that changed the way I perceive life. This footprint is a dedication to the circle of life - an endless journey to comprehend the balance between birth and death, light and darkness.

Many thanks to my musicians and close friends that have supported me all through the process of giving birth to this album. Extra special thanks to Thommy Andersson for helping me produce this album and to Ayi Solomon for his great playing and his unconditional love.
