Kismet
 Little bird I sing for you I keep your song alive for you and me I track your smile still a while too soon the moon; it climbs so high up the sky, now waves goodbye sleep tight you and I So little bird,
 fly high for me tonight Free your mind, 'till you find where to belong
 do your thing, this I sing
 'cause under this sun
 you owe me none, little one Now, little bird,
 please sing your song!

Dream
 (R. S. Thomas)
 In the dream
 I gave the bird freedom. In real life
 I told it my dream
 In its cage.
 It sang then notes of gold hotter than my tears punishing itself for my dream.

Singalong Song
 Once in a while it comes to my mind
 Strange, yet familiar somehow
 Would you sing it with me?
 A tune with some words we could sing along
 Strange, yet familiar somehow
 Would you sing it with me?
 Or should I keep it as a secret humming song?
 Yet, I wonder what it may bring to your mind So should I share it; would I really dare to;
 as with candid hands of a curious child?
 Strange, yet familiar somehow
 Would you sing it with me?
 As I know the sound of your voice by heart,
 would you know this piece of art?
 Would you sing it with me?
 As I know the light in your eyes by heart,
 would you know this piece of art?
 Would you share it with me?
